About this policy

Why does SuperConcepts need your personal information?

Understanding and meeting our customers' financial needs over the course of their lifetime is a central part of our business. We do this by providing financial products and services, and to do this effectively, we need to collect certain personal information.

In this Privacy Policy, personal information is any information that could identify you or be used to establish your identity.

The types of products and financial services we or companies associated with us provide include:

- advice and administration services supporting self-managed superannuation funds
- accounting and computer software services
- life insurance products
- investment products
- superannuation and retirement income products
- banking and other services (deposit and credit facilities)
- financial planning advice and other services to help you understand your financial needs and make financial and investment decisions
- management of investment assets such as shares, property, fixed interest and cash.

SuperConcepts mainly collects, holds, uses and discloses customers' personal information so we can establish, manage and provide these products and financial services. We may also use and disclose your information for purposes related to those mentioned above, such as arranging for services to be provided by third parties and enhancing our customer service and product options (see the next section 'Will my personal information be used for Direct Marketing').

In addition, some laws require us to collect personal information. These include the Anti- Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth) and the U.S Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act.

Will my personal information be used for Direct Marketing?

We may also use and disclose your personal information to keep you informed about the range of financial products and services offered by the SuperConcepts and its related companies. These products and services may include superannuation, investment, retirement, banking, credit and life insurance products, and financial planning services. Again, when conducting our marketing activities, we may disclose some of that information to our service providers.

You can opt out of receiving direct marketing information from us at any time (see the 'How can you contact SuperConcepts about privacy?' section below).

What happens if I do not provide information that has been requested?

It's your choice whether to provide your information. However, if you don't, we may be unable to fulfil your request for a specific product or service or may not be able to identify you to protect you against fraud.

What types of personal information does SuperConcepts collect?

We may ask for a range of personal information to assist us in providing you with relevant financial products and services. The information we may request includes (but is not limited to) name, address, date of birth, contact details, income, assets and liabilities, account balances, tax and financial statements, health information, employment details, domicile and citizenship status.

Does SuperConcepts collect sensitive information?

We sometimes need to collect and use sensitive information.

Sensitive information includes information or an opinion relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political views or memberships, religious beliefs or affiliations, membership of a professional or trade association or trade union, sexual orientation or practices and criminal record. It also includes information about a person's health and medical history.

The Australian Privacy Principles set out restrictions about the way sensitive information can be used.

Unless you give us your consent, or if we are required or permitted by law, we will only use or disclose sensitive information for the purposes for which it was provided.

How does SuperConcepts collect personal information?

SuperConcepts will collect your personal information directly from you where this is reasonable and practical. We gather this information either through applications or other forms that you complete, or by recording the information you provide via phone calls, interviews and other forms of communication.

We may also collect personal information from external sources. Examples of the people or organisations who may provide us with information are:

- employers, when a new employee joins their superannuation or insurance plan
- parents or guardians in respect of children
- people authorised by you (such as lawyers or accountants)
- other credit providers
- public sources of information (such as telephone directories)
- market research organisations (through surveys or telephone polls)
- third-party brokers (such as insurance and mortgage brokers)
- credit reporting bodies.

When we are provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, we seek to ensure the individual is aware of certain matters, such as SuperConcepts identity and our contact details.

Can you remain anonymous or use a pseudonym when dealing with us?

If you wish to remain anonymous or to use a pseudonym when dealing with us, we may be able to provide you with limited information or services, such as general details about our products.

However in many cases it will be impracticable for us to assist you if you wish to remain anonymous or use a pseudonym. For example, we are generally not permitted to issue a financial product to a person without first collecting their personal information. Also, the provision of many financial services is highly personalised, with the quality and scope of financial advice heavily dependent on the individual circumstances of each customer. Because of this, if you choose not to identify yourself or wish to use a pseudonym, we may be unable to provide you with the specific product or service you want. It may also affect our ability to properly analyse your personal circumstances so our recommendations may not be completely appropriate or suitable for you.

How does SuperConcepts protect your personal information?

Whether your personal information is gathered through face-to-face meetings or by interacting with us via telephone, mail, internet or other methods, we take steps to store your information securely. We hold your personal information in a combination of secure computer storage facilities, paper-based files and other formats.

We take a number of steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or improper disclosure. These include instructing our staff and financial advisers who handle personal information to respect the confidentiality of customer information and the privacy of individuals.

Who does SuperConcepts share personal information with?

From time to time we may share your personal information with other entities both within and outside of SuperConcepts. The entities that we might share your personal information with vary according to the product or service involved, but could include:

- other areas and organisations within the SuperConcepts and its related companies that provide financial and other services
- financial planners, brokers and other parties authorised or accredited by us
- service providers and specialist advisers we engage to provide us with services, such as administrative, financial, insurance or research services, some of whom may contact you on our behalf
- insurers, including reinsurance companies, and credit providers
- courts, tribunals and other dispute resolution bodies in the course of a dispute
- credit reporting or reference agencies or insurance investigators
- anyone authorised by you or to whom you have provided your consent (either expressly or impliedly), including but not limited to other financial services providers that we may need to deal with on your behalf
- anyone to whom we, or our service providers, are required or authorised by law to disclose your personal information (for example, law enforcement agencies, and national and international government and regulatory authorities including but not limited to the Australian Taxation Office, the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre and the United States Internal Revenue Service)
- other financial services institutions - in order to detect, investigate or prevent actual or potential fraud in connection with the products or services we provide to you.

Is SuperConcepts likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients?

Some of the entities we share information with may be located in, or have operations in, other countries. The current list of countries or regions to which your personal information could be sent is set out below:

SERVICES	COUNTRIES AND REGIONS
Reinsurance	European Union, Japan, Switzerland, United States
Administration, research and other financial services and specialist advice	China, Hong Kong, Japan, European Union, Malaysia, New Zealand, Singapore, Canada, India, the Philippines, United States, Mauritius, Sri Lanka
Sending or receiving superannuation benefits overseas	European Union, New Zealand

We normally require any external organisations with whom we share your personal information to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles.

Please also note that SuperConcepts is part of AMP group, and that personal information collected by one part of AMP, such as SuperConcepts, may be shared with other companies in the AMP group for reasonable business purpose.

How does SuperConcept update personal information?

We realise that your personal information changes frequently – people move house, change jobs and update other personal circumstances on an ongoing basis. In most cases you can alter your details over the telephone or via the SuperConcepts website.

If we believe the information we hold is incomplete or out of date, we may also seek to correct or complete our records by gathering data from other sources such as public records and other organisations.

How long will SuperConcepts keep your information?

We may be legally required to maintain some of your records for a significant period of time. However once we believe information is no longer needed we may remove any identifying details or destroy the records entirely.

How can you contact SuperConcepts about privacy?

You can contact us to:

- seek more information about anything contained in this policy, or to request a copy
- of this policy in a different format
- update or correct your personal information
- opt out of receiving direct marketing material
- ask about accessing or correcting the personal information we hold about you; or
- make a privacy related complaint.

in one of the following ways.

- By telephone : 1800 625 644

- In writing: Po Box 1984 North Sydney NSW 2059

How do I find out about the personal information SuperConcepts holds about me?

Under the Privacy Act you have the right to access the personal information we hold about you, with some exceptions. To make a request you need to complete a form outlining what information you require. Access forms can be obtained by contacting us as set out above.

SuperConcepts is permitted to refuse access to personal information in certain situations. Examples include where:

- giving access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals
- giving access would be unlawful, or where denying access is required or authorised by an Australian law or a court order
- both of the following apply:
  - (i). we have reason to suspect that unlawful activity, or misconduct of a serious nature, that relates to our functions or activities has been, is being or may be engaged in; and
  - (ii). giving access would be likely to prejudice the taking of appropriate action in relation to the matter
- giving access is likely to interfere with law enforcement activities.

Before providing the requested information we will give you an estimate of any potential costs associated with this, including expenses for locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any of the material you need.

What should I do if I have a complaint?

To raise any concerns you might have in relation to privacy, please contact us via the contact channels listed at the start of this section.

We take privacy-related complaints very seriously and consider all complaints carefully as part of our commitment to being open, honest and fair in dealing with your concerns. In most cases, we'll contact you within five working days of receiving your complaint to let you know what actions we are taking regarding the matter.

How can I escalate my concerns?

If you feel your complaint has not been satisfactorily addressed in the first instance, or that it is taking too long to resolve, you can ask for your concerns to be escalated to the Privacy Officer. Contact details are as follows:

What about privacy and the internet?

What is a Cookie and how does SuperConcepts use cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text stored on your computer to help us determine the type of browser and settings you are using, where you have been on the web site, when you return to the web site, where you came from, and to ensure your information is secure. The purpose of this information is to provide you with a more relevant and effective experience on our website, including presenting web pages according to your needs or preferences.

We use cookies to give you access to certain pages of the websites without having to log in each time you visit. SuperConcepts may also use external service providers to track the traffic and usage on the web site.

Cookies are frequently used on many websites on the internet and you can choose if and how a cookie will be accepted by changing your preferences and options in your browser. You may not be able to access some parts of our website if you choose to disable the cookie acceptance in your browser, particularly the secure parts of the website. We therefore recommend you enable cookie acceptance to benefit from all the services on the website.

Links to third party websites

The SuperConcepts website has links to external third party websites that may benefit the user. External websites should contain their own privacy statements and we recommend you review them when using their websites. Please note, however, that third party websites are not covered by this policy, and these sites are not subject to our privacy standards and procedures.

Website Analytics

Website analytics measurement software is used to assist in tracking traffic patterns to and from our website, anonymously surveying users of the sites. The system is used to collect such information as the number of unique visitors, how long these visitors spend on the website when they do visit, and common entry and exit points into and from the website.

This non-personal information is collected and aggregated by third party software and provided to us to assist in our analysis of our websites. You cannot be identified personally from this information and no personal information is stored about you.

About this policy

Any information we hold is governed by the most current SuperConcepts Privacy Policy. The policy is publicly available via our website www.superconcepts.com.au, or you can contact us about obtaining the policy in different formats (see the 'How can you contact SuperConcepts about Privacy' section on page 6). This policy is reviewed from time to time to take account of new laws and technology, and changes to our operations and practices, and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing environment.
